

NPRA

NATIONAL PHARMACEUTICAL REGULATORY AGENCY

“

MISSION

To safeguard
the nation's health
through scientific excellence in regulatory control of medicinal products and cosmetics

”

National Pharmaceutical Regulatory Agency
(NPRA)

Lot 36, Jalan Universiti,
46200 Petaling Jaya,
Selangor, Malaysia.

+603-7883 5400

<https://www.npra.gov.my>

6 CENTRES IN NPRA

CENTRE FOR PRODUCT REGISTRATION

Focus on product classification, screening, product registration process and ensure all products registered are safe, effective and of quality for public consumption

CENTRE FOR QUALITY CONTROL

Carry out analytical, pharmaceutical, microbiological and pharmacological tests on drugs and cosmetics to determine the quality, efficacy and safety of products in the market.

CENTRE FOR COMPLIANCE & LICENSING

Implement the licensing scheme for pharmaceutical manufacturers, importers and wholesalers.

CENTRE FOR INVESTIGATIONAL NEW PRODUCT

Regulate clinical trials, Bioequivalence monitoring, licensing scheme for clinical trials, Good Lab Practice & Good Clinical Practice

CENTRE FOR POST PRODUCT REGISTRATION & COSMETIC CONTROL

Manage the Product Recall Scheme for pharmaceutical products, Cosmetics Control Scheme and Adverse Drug Reaction Monitoring Program

CENTRE FOR DEVELOPMENT & STRATEGIC PLANNING

Engage in policy and communication with industry & stakeholders, management of the QUEST3+ System and conduct training through local training schemes or international cooperation schemes.

VISION

To be an internationally renowned regulatory authority for medicinal products and cosmetics.

